Thanks Anna....

I might be slow at times (getting older...LOL...), but I am always looking for what we could love and fit for us. When I find something of interest, as you've seen, I mark/save it, so I can show my fiance' at a later time.

I will most assuredly stick with you, no matter what the time frame will be... I make you that promise.... It could be up to a year, as I mentioned when we first started.

It is your thoughtfulness, and kindness that show me your the consummate professional in the Real Estate world. Even though it is a bi-weekly or monthly e-mail of what is out there, you have remembered me, even at times when I got to busy to remember myself.

I have been dealing with the Real Estate world as a customer/owner since 1990; and if I may blunt, there is not an agent, or company that has shown the dedication and interest, not to mention the common courtesy of communication, that you seem to be able to accomplish, seemingly easy.

As a military professional of 24 yrs, attention to detail is a serious issue with me. Meaning, that it doesn't require allot of heavy work to spend 10-15 mins once in a while to give someone some information, and to help them find / achieve what it is they are needing.

As I mentioned, your the only person to do this in all of my years. I want to Thank You very much, and as I stated at the beginning of my sermon (LOL), when it comes time, I will not go with another agent. No matter what may happen for me, (meaning where I'll find the home), I will have you represent us.

I hope you and your family have a nice and Happy 4th of July weekend.

God Bless, and Thanks Again, Jim Fitting
